2016 - THE YEAR OF BIOSECURITY

Facility Management: manure, garbage, deadstock

Manure, garbage and deadstock are all capable of transmitting pathogens and contaminating the environment if not contained and disposed of correctly.

Most of us are good at separating our sharps and medical waste in accordance with local regulations and we take the trash out regularly but proper containment and disposal of manure and deadstock is a bit more complicated.

More Information for your barn or racing stable is available in the new National Farm-Level Biosecurity standard now posted in final format online. See section 8 for information about manure, garbage and deadstock management.

RESEARCH ON HORSE RIDING INCIDENTS

In collaboration with Equine Guelph, Lara Genik (PhD Student) and Dr. C. Meghan McMurtry of the Psychology Department at the University of Guelph are working to better understand the types of painful incidents that children commonly experience when handling and riding horses.

It is hoped that the findings will help to inform safety-related programming for children and those who supervise them. Read on...

HOOFPRIENTS TRIBUTE TAGER - 1990 - 2016

Beloved companion of 23 years to Jim, Joan, Ben and Kaitie, resting gently atop the hill.

"..he trots the air; the earth sings when he touches it; the basest horn of his hoof is more musical than the pipe of Hermes...he is pure air and fire; and the dull elements of earth and water never appear in him, but only in patient stillness while his rider mounts him; he is indeed a horse..."
