Breeding The Fastest Horse – New Date and Location

Saturday, November 26th, Ajax Convention Centre

October 11, 2011, Toronto, ON – Breeding the Fastest Horse, an industry seminar to be hosted by the Quarter Horse Racing Industry Development Program (QHRIDP) has been rescheduled to Saturday, November 26th at the Ajax Convention Centre.

“The Program has received very positive feedback on the seminar agenda and the guest speakers who will be presenting,” said Program Coordinator Sandy Anthony. “We are very pleased to have as a speaker Dan Lucas, the leading Quarter Horse breeder in North America.” The date and location of the seminar has been changed in order to maximize attendance, both from breeders within the Quarter Horse racing industry and from breeders new to, or curious about, breeding for the Quarter Horse programs.

This important seminar will focus on:

- Planned breeding, herd improvement and crosses that work for Quarter Horse racing
- Factors affecting fertility and early conception in the broodmare
- Herd management practices to improve the chance of full-term pregnancy
- Marketing stallions
- How to get started breeding racehorses for the Ontario Quarter Horse Program

Seminar will be held at: Ajax Convention Centre
