FULL-CIRCLE-RESPONSIBILITY - 2015

Code Section 10: Euthanasia

We love to think about our wonderful times with our equine companions, but
End-of-life decisions represent our last and most-important obligation of ownership in our cycle of care for our horses. Read on...

Visit Equine Guelph's Code Decoder tool: the fast and easy way to learn the National Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of Equines.

In partnership with Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, Equine Guelph is developing a 'Full-Circle-Responsibility' equine welfare educational initiative which stands to benefit the welfare of horses in both the racing and non-racing industries.

In memory of Pilgrim's Journey (2012 - 2015),

Although your journey was tragically cut short, you were truly adored and taken care of with such love and compassion.

You never needed any restraint save for your owner's reassuring embrace. You will forever be missed by beloved owner/trainer Joe Ruffolo.

DRESSED TO KILL - rider safety is always in fashion

Regardless of your riding discipline, safety starts at the head and continues all the way down to the toes. You could be dressed to kill if your riding boots do not sport a wedge heel. A moment of imbalance is all it takes for a foot to slide through the stirrup, creating the potential for a nasty accident.

Learn more about the best attire to minimize risk of injury.

EQUIMANIA! GALLOPS BACK INTO TORONTO

EquiMania! gallops back into Toronto for the third time this year for the Royal Agricultural Winter fair November 6 -15!

EquiManiacs can't get enough of the hands-on activities and love to immerse themselves in Equine Guelph's well-travelled, award-winning display.

Equine Guelph partnered with the OEF will be promoting "Ticket to Ride" once again at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. The "Ticket to Ride" program was hugely popular at its launch last year at the Royal. It offers youth an opportunity for a FREE introductory riding lesson (or introduction to horses) at participating OEF member riding facilities. Visit the Ticket to Ride booth and EquiMania! for more details. Read on...
